

Circuit Court Judge Rejects Bremer

UPPER MARLBORO, Md. (AP)—Arthur H. Bremer, convicted assailant of Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, was denied a new trial Thursday.

Bremer's conviction on charges of shooting Wallace and three other persons will be appealed, Benjamin Lipsitz, his attorney said, once $2,000 is raised to pay for the transcript of the trial.

The 22-year old Milwaukee Wis. native was convicted and sentenced to a 63-year prison term Aug. 4. He is expected to serve his sentence at the Maryland State Penitentiary, a maximum security prison in Baltimore.

Prices Georges County Circuit Court Judge Ralph Powers rejected the request which Lipsitz based on grounds at least one juror saw television news film of the shooting.

Wallace remains partially paralyzed from the bullet wounds. He was cut down at the conclusion of a campaign rally at a Laurel, Md., shopping Center May 15, the day be-

THE POST, Frederick, Maryland
Friday, August 25, 1972

Page B-3

Trial Request

fore he won the Maryland presidential primary.

Secret Service Agent Nicholas Zarvos, Alabama State Trooper Capt. E. C. Dothard and Dora Thompson, a Hyattsville, Md., Wallace volunteer were also injured by the shots.

"There's no special arrangement of any kind," said Bob Grams, a spokesman for the state corrections system. "He'll be eating his meals with other inmates and treated in every way the same as every inmate," Grams said.